

Medicare Advantage 2025

35.7 MILLION

In 2025, a record-setting 35.7 million people are projected to enroll in Medicare Advantage

Source: CMS Announcement, September 2024

89%

89% of Medicare Advantage plans include prescription drug coverage

Source: Kaiser Family Foundation, Medicare Advantage 2025 Spotlight

97%

97% of Medicare Advantage plans provide some combination of dental, vision, or hearing benefits

Source: Kaiser Family Foundation, Medicare Advantage 2025 Spotlight

$17.00

The average Medicare Advantage monthly plan premium in 2025 is projected to be $17.00

Source: CMS announcement, September 2024

NEARLY 2/3

Nearly two-thirds (62.1%) of beneficiaries are enrolled in high-quality Medicare Advantage Part D plans, earning 4 or more stars

Source: CMS announcement, October 2024

99.6%

Medicare Advantage access is nearly universal: 99.6% of Medicare beneficiaries have access to a Medicare Advantage option

Source: Kaiser Family Foundation, Medicare Advantage 2025 Spotlight

$2,500

Medicare Advantage beneficiaries report saving on average more than $2,500 annually on out-of-pocket costs and premiums compared to Fee-for-Service Medicare beneficiaries

Source: Better Medicare Alliance, June 2024

97%

97% of Medicare Advantage plans offer additional telehealth benefits, up from 83% in 2024

Source: Avalere Health analysis of CMS Landscape and Plan Benefit Package files, 2022-2025

86.8%

Special Needs Plans

86.8% of Special Needs Plans (SNPs) and 15.8% of individual plans will offer at least one Special Supplemental Benefit for the Chronically Ill (SSBCI) in 2025

Source: Avalere Health analysis of CMS Landscape and Plan Benefit Package files, 2022-2025

15.8%

Individual Plans